

PINK FUND

REAL HELP FOR THE OTHER PART OF THE FIGHT

AMBASSADOR PROGRAM

All too often, breast cancer patients are faced with impossible choices; chemo or car payment, radiation or rent, phone bill or pharmacy. Pink Fund replaces OR with AND. Because nobody should have to sit in a chemo chair worried about how they're going to pay their everyday bills.

As an ambassador, you will be representing Pink Fund and its mission to the public. Ambassadors may also have the opportunity to participate in fundraising activities and volunteer work. This can involve organizing events, soliciting donations, and spreading awareness about the organization's impact.

Being a Pink Fund ambassador is a rewarding and challenging experience that allows individuals to make a meaningful impact in their community and beyond.
